

For Children, Misses and Women

SEYMOUR SYCLE "Footwear Service" -Regardless of Price

The Season's
Best-Liked
Colonials
Worth $5.00

Choice of the finest grade tans, patent leather, demi-glaze and black satins ever put into a $5
pump—all sizes, to-morrow.

$3.98

Specialized service in the correct fitting of custom-made shoes is yours in this store—no matter what you pay. Personal interested care is given to insure not only outward smartness, but that quality of foot-conforming which means lasting foot-health and real comfort—especially during the hot summer months.

Ask any one who has worn Sycle Shoes.
"They do fit well and hold their shape" is the unanimous opinion.

Test Seymour Sycle Service
for Brides Footwear, Dancing Slippers, Riding
Boots, Tennis and Golf Shoes

"Shirtwaist Pumps"
of exceptional quality washable canvas, of master design and workmanship, hand-welt sole, all sizes.

$3.50
Values $2.48

SEYMOUR SYCLE
11 W. BROAD

DURHAM

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Durham, N. C., June 15.—Miss Douglas Hill, who has been for several weeks visiting in Northern cities, has returned home yesterday.

Miss Hunter Smith, of Fayetteville, who has been the guest of her sisters, Misses Mary and Lucie Gorham, returned home yesterday.

Miss Bernice Hornaday has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hornaday. She has returned to her home in Weidon.

Miss Annie Bagwell was the hostess to a charming party of her friends Saturday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at her home on McManhattan Street. Her house guests were Misses Janie Lee, Beale, Virgil Balle, Mable, Farmer, Emma Holland and Pearl Turk. Elton College students, friends of Miss Bagwell, and she entertained in their honor. There was music, games, and a joyous time throughout the evening. Delicious refreshments were served. Besides her guests, Misses Florine Bagwell, Esther Wyatt, Maude Bagwell, and Clyde Stewart, George Cunningham, Will, and Theodore Wilson, Ralph Rollins, Rudolph Warren, Hubert Harward, Willie Bagwell, George Harward and Joe Farmer.

Miss W. H. Stone and her grand-daughter, Miss Sallie Stone, who have been visiting Mrs. Chas. Robbins, have returned to their home in Greensboro, N. C. Duke and Miss Mary Duke and Angier Duke left Saturday for New York, where they will remain for the summer.

Dr. Frank C. Brown, professor of English at Trinity College, and Mrs. Brown left Saturday evening for Chicago, where the professor will be engaged in work at the University of Chicago during vacation.

Miss Annie Brannon has returned to her home in Concord, after spending several days in the city with friends, J. S. Carr, Jr., and Mrs. Carr, with her sister, Miss Louise McClellan Cannon, of Concord, who are spending some time in New York City.

Misses Rebecca Michie, Lucy Stokes and Kathleen Matthews have come to Concord, where they are spending the week at a house party given by Miss Ashley Lowe.

The engagement of Miss Bessie Burton, of Stuart, Va., and F. A. Ogburn, of Durham, has been announced.

Misses Bessie and Margaret Erwin and Miss Mary Louise, who are with this city, with a party of others, under the chaperonage of a teacher of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, are now en route for a three-months' tour abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Mangum have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Southern, to Thomas L. Cheek, both of this city. The event takes place on the evening of June 20 at 105 Jones Street.

Miss J. F. Willy was the hostess at a very beautiful dinner Tuesday evening at the Commonwealth Club. The table decorations were sweet peas in cut glass bowls and in clusters of eucalyptus. The menu was as follows: Misses Grace Jones, Bessie Curtis, Elizabeth Noel, of Danville; Miss Roberta Henshaw and J. L. Morehead, of Carr; Misses Mary and L. Worth and Mrs. L. L. Morehead. Later in the evening the following young people were invited to enjoy a game of cards: Miss Douglas Hill, with S. S. Sparger; Miss Lila Wright, with P. C. Sneed; Miss Lila Carr Vaughan, with Dr. Pierce; Miss Annie Louise Vaughn.

Can Cancer Be Cured?
IT CAN

The record of the Kellam Hospital is without parallel in history, having cured to stay cured permanently without the use of the knife or X-ray, over 90 per cent. of the many hundreds of eucalyptus from cancer which was treated during the past fifteen years.

We have been endorsed by the Senate and Legislature of Virginia. We guarantee our cures.

Physicians treated free.

KELLAM HOSPITAL
1017 West Main Street,
RICHMOND, - - - VIRGINIA

ENGRAVING

Wedding Invitations and Stationery for all special occasions. Samples on request.

Bell Book and Stationery Company
614 East Main.

:-:Society:-:

(Continued from Second Page.)

bedroom, trimmed in pearl fringe, and the tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. She wore a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom, and carried a shower of orange and lilacs of the valley. Miss Anna Johnson was maid of honor, and Miss Emily Taylor, Mary Wilcox and Elizabeth Baylor were bridesmaids. They all wore frocks of pink silk charmeuse, with white lace coats, and carried showers of pink sweet peas. Pink tulle veils in the hair added the finishing touch to their costumes.

Edward McCormick Stribling was his brother's best man, and the ushers were Robert Taylor, Ludwell Baldwin, Tom Wilcox, Jr., Robert A. Wainwright and Walter Richards, of Norfolk; William Lee, of Williamsburg; Joshua Campbell, of New York, and Washington Lewis, of Washington.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, on Graydon Avenue. The entire lower floor was decorated with pink daisies, Killarney roses and sweet peas, relieved by palms and foliage plants. An orchestra was stationed behind a bank of palms in the hall.

Mrs. Wickham Taylor, Mrs. Edward McCormick Stribling, of Berryville; Mr. and Mrs. John Stribling, Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Gardner, of Georgia, and Mr. Kowalski, of Berryville, were in the receiving line. Mrs. Taylor wore a handsome gown of white satin duchesse, heavily embroidered and made with an overdress of lace, trimmed in crystal fringe. Mrs. Stribling carried lilacs of the valley.

Mrs. Gardner's gown was of white satin with black chiffon overdress embroidered in white and black and trimmed in crystal fringe. She carried white gardenias.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Stribling left for an extended wedding trip, and upon their return will make their home in Norfolk.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were: Wickham Taylor, of Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Gardner, of Augusta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. March Young, Mrs. Clarence Kenyon and William Cartwright, of New York; Mrs. Edward McCormick Stribling and Kowalski, of Berryville; Rev. William E. Lee, of Gloucester; Mr. Lee, of Williamsburg; and Frank Thiford, of Georgia.

Commencement.

The commencement of Miss Marie C. Frick's music school will be held on Tuesday evening, June 18, at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the John Marshall High School. A very attractive program has been arranged, and all interested are invited to attend.

Medical Contest.

The Frances Willard League, branch of the W. T. L. A., held a silver medal contest in the East End Baptist Church last Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock. Those contesting for the medal were Misses Louise Johns, Ella Johns, Mrs. Bessie Johns, Mrs. Carter, Esie Taylor Cox, Myrtle Barker, Freeman, and Dorothy Jenkins. The medal was awarded to Miss Louise Johns, of 314 Twenty-sixth Street for her recitation of "The Little Girl's Prayer."

The Rev. P. O. Soyars opened with prayer, and the Rev. W. C. Harrell presented the medal to Miss Johns with a very happy little speech. There was some delightful music by the choir at the conclusion of the program. The judges in the contest were Mrs. Binn, Mrs. Pearl Young and Mr. Kelly.

Moonlight Excursion.

Patrons for the moonlight excursion to Dutch Gap for the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital, which will take place on Tuesday evening of this month, will be the members of St. John's Church of Kings Daughters. It is under the direction of this circle and the board of managers of the hospital that the excursion is given.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Anne P. Hopkins is with a former schoolmate, Miss Louise Miller, of Winchester, Va., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bratten, of Princess Anne county, where she is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. William P. Powell.

Miss Dorothy E. Wise is home from Hollins College. The commencement exercises of the music class of Miss Margaret N. Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fletcher, and Miss Mary Louise Hunter, of Bright, England, will be held at Christobol, Panama, on June 20.

Miss Sarah G. Parker, after spending three months with her brother, L. A. Parker, left for Baltimore, Md., where she is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. William P. Powell.

Miss Elizabeth Flansburg, of Leesburg, is visiting relatives in Richmond for a week.

Robert M. Jeffers left Saturday for a stay of several weeks with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Maria Parkinson, who is the guest of relatives at West Franklin Street, expects to sail this week for Europe with a party of girls.

Governor and Mrs. William Hodges Mann have returned from Lexington, where they attended the graduation of their son, Hodges Mann.

Mrs. M. P. Coburn and her daughter, Miss Mamie Coburn, of New Mexico, are guests of Mrs. R. A. Lewis, of Highland Park.

Mrs. C. C. Pate and her son are spending a week or ten days in Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Washington.

Mrs. Virginia Emile and her son, Adam, of Wilmington, N. C., are spending some time at the home of Miss Lucy Lilly Temple on West George Street.

Miss Conway Fleming has returned from Annapolis, where she attended the celebration of June week.

Miss Gertrude Krug has returned to her home, after having been at St. Luke's Hospital for five weeks, where she was operated on for appendicitis.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Children's day exercises will be held in the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow morning, and in the M. E. Church at night. Special musical programs and other attractive features are promised at each church.

Every Tailored Suit & Silk Dress

at Dreyfus &amp; Co.

Broad at Second.

Reduced--Many Half Price

Tailored Wool Suits
Prices Re-Adjusted

Now---$9.75 to $45.00

Formerly---$20.00 to $87.50

To say that these suits would be of commanding worth at their actual values is the highest compliment that we can pay them. Nothing is more desirable than a tailored suit for summer wear, travel, and for cool days and nights on the water.

Late Arrivals in the New

Slip-On Coats and Cape Coats of satin, with bright linings; black with rose; black with gold; black with emerald; black with old blue.

Special Offering $8.50

Specialized Frocks

Girlish and Simple in Design.

For all occasions—Dinner Frocks—Semi-Dress Frocks—Simple Daytime Frocks—in Crepe de Chine, Chameleon Taffeta, Chiffon Taffeta, Summer Silks in stripes, Soft Charmeuse and Lace Combination—Opal Silks and Lace—Combination and Silk Voile in fine stripes—Offered at the following big reductions—

$ 9.75---For $18.50 values

$ 19.50---For $30.00 values

$39.50---For $55.00 values

$42.50---For $65.00 values

Girl's Wash Dresses

13 to 18 years.

Easily laundered styles for dressy wear, made of batistes, percales and tissue ginghams, in all colors—plain, striped and checks, also blue figured lawns. At $2.50, $3.50 and $5.

500 Lingerie Waists, $1.25 value, 69c.

HOUSTON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Houston, Va., June 15.—Miss Ellen Bouldin, who for the past college year has been taking special work at Columbia University, Washington, is at the factory Miss Bouldin will shortly leave for the University of Virginia Summer school, where she will instruct during the term.

Mrs. P. D. Lipscomb, formerly Miss Katherine Watkins, who has been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. W. Watkins, left on Wednesday for Warsaw.

G. R. Frost left Houston on Friday of last week for Wrightsville Beach, N. C., to join Mrs. Frost, who has been at the last mentioned resort for a fortnight or more.

Mrs. Henry C. Kelly and children, of Richmond, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Edmunds, left on Tuesday for Richmond. Mrs. Kelly's party was joined by Miss Sarah Leigh and Master Lewis Edmunds, from Richmond, who will go to a camp at the New Hampshire hills for the summer.

Jack and Frank Faulkner have returned for the summer, after successfully completing their third year at college. They expect to matriculate in the autumn at Washington and Lee.

John Martin and Archer Dorsey left on Friday morning for an extensive Northern vacation. Their itinerary is to Norfolk, thence to Atlantic City, West Point, to Boston and to Canada.

Professor Wyche is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Craddock.

Mrs. G. R. C. Phillips, of Washington, D. C., arrived Tuesday evening, and is the guest of Mrs. Tom Leigh.

Mrs. Phillips, after visiting in Houston, will arrive early in July, and will occupy the old Shaefer place.

Miss Adeline and Ovid Webb, who have been at school in Tallahassee, Fla., during the past session, have returned.

The young people of Beth Car Baptist Church on last Sunday afternoon organized the Houston branch of the Baptist Young People's Union. The next meeting will be on Sunday, June 23, when short talks will be made by the young people on "The Church—the World's Need."

AMHERST

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Amherst, Va., June 15.—The approach of the summer season has not interfered with social gaieties at Amherst. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Charles A. Joubert entertained in a most gracious manner at her beautiful home here the "Five Hundred Club" of Amherst, complimenting her guests.

Misses Eugenia Griffin and Louise Hopner, among those present were Headmistress W. K. Allen, W. H. Kent, J. T. Bonney, W. L. Brodie and A. E. Strade, of Amherst; Mesdames Mildred Strade, Vandergrift of New Hampshire, and S. M. G. Wilks, of Lynchburg.

Misses Eugenia Cox, Marian Darborn, Frances and Rosalie Harrison, Bessie Robertson, Eugenia Griffin, Louise Hopner, Bessie Scott, Eva Wile, K. D. Tallaferra and Harriet Evans, of Amherst, and Misses Leslie Strade, of Staunton, and Marian D. Neffey, of Alexandria, and Victor von Gerningen and Charles A. Joubert. Mrs. Joubert was assisted in receiving by Miss E. W. Williams.

During the evening a delicious course of ices was served.

Mrs. J. G. Keaton and children have returned from a visit to Rev. J. L. Wiley and family, of Eagle Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tallaferra and son, Kenneth, this week visited at Mrs. R. M. Tallaferra's.

Misses Emma and Essie Beard have gone to Lynchburg to spend the month of June with their brother, E. M. Beard.

Miss Alice Reed, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Bowman, has returned to her home at Blackstone.

Abram Warwick Saunders, of Iowa, this week visited his daughter, Miss Emma Saunders, at Miss Mary C. Ellis's.

Huntley Wiley has returned to his home at Eagle Rock, after a visit to J. G. Keaton.

Miss Mary Scott, who taught during the past session at the Episcopal Institute at Haymarket, has returned home for the summer.

Miss Jean Harris, of Harrisburg, was last week a guest of her cousin, Miss Harriet Evans.

Mrs. H. A. Cole, of Whitehead and mother, Mrs. H. A. Cole, are visiting in Norfolk.

H. E. Gregory and family, of Lynchburg, are spending the summer at Amherst.

The Amherst Choral Club, under the direction of Dr. R. C. Whitehead, is arranging to hold its annual concert on June 23. Regular practices are being held twice a week, and the concert promises to be a rare treat for music lovers.

HOT SPRINGS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Hot Springs, Va., June 15.—Mr. and Mrs. George Guntion are entertaining Mrs. Guntion's son-in-law, and daughter, Baron and Baroness Stankranz, of London, at Guntion Lodge. The baron and baroness arrived in New York from England last week, bringing in their motor with them, and came on in their Hot Springs, making this trip in two days. They are planning a motoring trip soon to Staunton.

A number of the out-of-towners have taken automobile trips through the mountains recently, among them Mr. and Mrs. Guntion, Mrs. M. L. Akers and Miss Jane Akers, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. Black, who are en route to Natural Bridge, and J. T. McAllister, and Miss Jean McAllister, who visited Blowing Cave.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Presser, of Germantown, who are touring Virginia in their automobile, arrived at The Homestead this week. They came through the Shenandoah Valley, visited Natural Bridge, and stopped at White Sulphur Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stookwell, of Buffalo, joined the colony of newlyweds the middle of the week at The Homestead. A score or more of bridal couples have been here ever since the first of June. Except at meal times they are rarely seen in the hotel, but are met at every turn in the shady mountain trails, walks and drives of the neighborhood. Those here this week included Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Troy Durston, who were married last month; Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Forman, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J.

Brach, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Waugh, of Orange, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harrison, of Louisville.

Mrs. L. I. Cooper, of Newark, is visiting her brother, Hamilton King, of New York, at his cabin near the Daniel Boone Log Cabin. Mr. King will leave for his home next month.

Arnold Genthe, of New York, who is developing the new color photograph, Dr. Genthe was fortunate enough a short time ago to take the only color photograph on record of a rainbow in the Grand Canyon of Arizona.

J. P. McAllister gave a tea at Treas. Top Bungalow a day or two ago for Mrs. Deatur Axell, of Richmond, and her sister, Mrs. Joseph Lovell Bay, of St. Louis, who is visiting her, Mrs. Cooper and Mr. King were also there among other guests.

Mrs. Archibald McGee entertained several friends at a bridge party at Barton Lodge several days ago, including among others Miss Alice Reed, of Baltimore; Mrs. James A. Morris and Mrs. Edgar A. Pele.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins sailed from New York early in the week for six weeks in France, Austria and England. Mrs. Hopkins gave a farewell bridge and reception before she left her cottage.

Mrs. Joseph Willard, of Richmond, wife of ex-Lieutenant-Governor Willard, of Virginia, is negotiating for a cottage here for the summer.

Judge Horace H. Lorton, of the United States Supreme Court, is planning to come from Washington with his family and occupy a cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Bright have arrived from New Orleans, and opened their residence on the hill overlooking The Homestead.

Miss Mary Johnston, the novelist, of Richmond, has taken the Brokenborough cottage at Warm Springs, and will occupy it until the completion of her summer home on the Boulevard in the autumn.

Don't Persecute your Bowels

Cut out cathartics and purgatives. They are brutal ---unnecessary. Try
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Purely vegetable. Act
gently on the bowels,
dissolve bile, and
remove the obstructions
of the bowels.
Cure Constipation,
Biliousness,
Sluggish
Stools, Headache and Indigestion, as millions know.

Small Pill, Small Dose, Small Price

Genuine must bear Signature

Wm. Wood

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND
Chichester's Diamond Brand
Pills are sold by all Druggists
and Grocers. Beware of cheap imitations. Each box contains
10 pills, and is sealed with Blue Ribbon.
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Wm. Wood

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND
Chichester's Diamond Brand
Pills are sold by all Druggists
and Grocers. Beware of cheap imitations. Each box contains
10 pills, and is sealed with Blue Ribbon.
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Wm. Wood

CHICHESTER'S PILLS